

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

MINTEL LEARNING TECHNOLOGY,
INC.,

Plaintiff,

No. C 06-07541 PJH

v.

ORDER VACATING HEARING DATE

BEIJING KAIDI EDUCATION &
TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPMENT CO.,
LTD, et al.,

Defendants.

The court is in receipt of the parties' request for a continuance of the date for the hearing on defendants' motions to quash/dismiss and the case management conference, previously set for Wednesday, May 30, 2007.

The court has reviewed the parties' papers, and finds the motions to be appropriate for decision without oral argument. Accordingly, the court will decide the motions on the papers. There will be no hearing. The parties shall complete the briefing on defendant Yalin Lin's motion to dismiss as agreed in their stipulation filed on May 17, 2007.

The court will advise the parties of the new case management conference date in the written order. Because the court is unavailable from June 4, 2007, through June 22, 2007, the order will be issued in early July 2007.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: May 18, 2007

PHYLLIS J. HAMILTON
United States District Judge
